Leigh-Anne L. Elkton, VA

Leigh-Anne prides herself on being a great journalist. Her mother got her started at the age of five and she has been a journaling fanatic ever since. For Leigh-Anne it has become an important venue in which she can "vent", develop ideas, and even record historical moments throughout her life. Leigh-Anne's perfect day would start off with a workout with her husband at their local gym, then take the kids to one of their many area historical attractions, like Monticello or Mt. Vernon, squeeze in some shopping, find a casual/quirky restaurant with great food for dinner, then finish the day with an egg nog latte in front of the fire, reading books to her very sleepy children. Leigh-Anne's favorite vacation spot would be Bethany Beach, Delaware in the fall. Especially since they can visit with family, shop, relax and eat great seafood, plus the kids love looking for sand dollars on the beach. The one thing that makes Leigh-Anne smile is the sound of her children laughing in another room. She also believes that someone should invent head bumpers for babies just learning to walk. Her tried and true recipe is a tie between Southern Living's crock pot beef stew and 30-
